

PRESS RELEASE

Almost 80 years after the end of the Second World War, Živá paměť has not forgotten the victims of Nazi persecution and their loved ones. Thousands of seniors received gift packages with non-perishable food and vitamin supplements from us these days.

Prague, 4 June 2024

Živá paměť, a public beneficiary society, whose mission since its founding in 2003 has been to care for survivors of Nazi persecution and to preserve and pass on their shared legacy of remembrance to future generations, entered this year with the clear goal of continuing to assist survivors and their loved ones in coping with difficult life situations, including the negative impact of high prices for housing, food, medicine, transportation, and other services.

We are glad that we have managed to provide goods for the thousands of survivors and their loved ones that they often do not have the financial means to afford on their limited incomes. We have put together the contents of the package to best meet the nutritional needs of the seniors, but also to please the recipients.

Each package includes canned fish (salmon, tuna and mackerel fillets), a gift box of premium Sir Winston teas with a mug, a quarter-pound vacuum-packed Italian ground coffee brand. B-complex forte (100 tablets) and Vitar: a combination of Calcium+Magnesium+Zinc+vitamin D3+K1 (150 tablets).

We also included our letter offering free professional social counselling and psychosocial support, provided by our Counselling Centre for Victims of Nazism.

Our very practical help is welcomed by the survivors and their loved ones, as evidenced by their many thank-you responses. We present a few of them for illustration:

With many thanks, I acknowledge the delivery of a wonderful package full of very welcome and useful gifts. M.V., Prague

Let me thank you and all those who contributed to sending the package for the "torso" of the Lidice children. It made us happy that we are not forgotten. Thank you. Sincerely, P.H., Lidice

Hello, I just received your incredibly valuable package. I am very happy and would like to thank you very much. I wish you every success in your so deserving work and I wish you relaxing spring days. D.S., Ostrava-Hrabůvka

I would like to thank you for the beautiful package I received from your company this week. I think that each of us seniors will be pleased with the contents of the package, but also with the attention that is given to us in this way. Thank you again and I wish you good health and much success in your future work. M.C., Prague

I acknowledge receipt of your gift package, which was delivered today in good order. As the vitamins have already run out this is very welcome, many thanks and greetings. L.R., Brno
